ABOUT MOROCCO

A motorcycle paradise! Morocco, located in North Africa, sits at a unique crossroads between the Atlantic Ocean, the Mediterranean Sea, and the African continent. The capital city is Rabat, while Marrakesh serves as a major tourist hub. The country boasts a rich history and culture, shaped by its indigenous Berber and Arab populations, as well as Sub-Saharan influences.

The official languages are Arabic and French, though English and Spanish are widely spoken. The majority of the population is Muslim, followed by Jewish and Christian communities.

Morocco is renowned for its diverse landscapes and striking geological features, from the majestic Atlas Mountains to the vast peri-Saharan regions. Its coastline stretches for more than 2,500 km, offering breathtaking beaches and dramatic cliffs.

Moroccan cuisine is ranked among the top five in the world, with iconic dishes such as tagine and couscous readily available along the way.

For motorcyclists, Morocco is a true paradise. Its well-maintained tarmac roads wind through the Atlas Mountains, crossing more than ten high-altitude passes that reach up to 2,000 meters. Meanwhile, endless dirt tracks, famous for hosting rallies including the original Dakar.

escape to Atlas is an extraordinary tour to get into the core of Atlas mountains, this one week motorcycle adventure goes through High and Middle Atlas in Morocco. We kick-start our adventure as we ride from Marrakesh toward Middle Atlas, navigating through cedar and monkey forests. Leaving the high plateaus behind, we head toward the Ziz palm valley till we reach the golden dunes of Merzouga, where we'll have the opportunity to catch sunset on a camel ride. As we continue on the high nomadic steppes, we arrive to the picturesque deep canyon of Todgha before we settle on the world famous valley of Dades. The Tichka mountain pass awaits, twisty roads on a well-maintained tarmac corresponding to the old caravan route connecting North to sub-Saharan. Free time to explore the narrow streets and the colorful markets of the old night medina of Marrakech, at last before we lead you back to fly back home.
